TAGIL ATILIAL MUNIO THE BIG HANDICAP

I VINCENT TRAINOR.

(Special to The Evening World.)

for Jockey Musgrave. He won the Queens County Handicap on Jack Atkin when all betting ring signs indicated that the Schreiber colt would be beaten. When it came down to a drive in the stretch between Mc-Daniel on Spooner and Musgrave on Jack Atkin, the latter combination too had some confident backing, as did Rifleman, Jack Atkins's price went back steadily until it reached the almost ridiculous 4 to 1 stage. The race goes to show that any one who tries to follow the betting ring angles is likely to get a bad fooling.

Bonnie Kelso Wins First.

Tom Reid was made favorite in the cpening event on the strength of his last race against Madrileno. He went the way of every opening event favorite of the week and was beaten. Bonnie Kelso won from Thetis, a long shot, with Ramble third. There was no decided play on anything in the race. The winner was played as well as anything aise. Ramble had some support, as did Havre and My Mariutsch. Ramble was in front all the way from the bend to the sixteenth pole, attended by Thetis, Tom Reid and Pleasing. At this point it looked like the race would result that way, but out of the bunch shot Bonnie Kelso, and he mowed down the field with every stride to win going away. The next two were heads apart.

He came away from the Newcast's coll like the good game horse that he is, with little Musgrave as still as a statue and McDaniel whipping his mount with all his energy.

James R. Keene's Restigouche, an added starter, ran head and head with Jack Atkin, following the early pace of Spooner. At the stretch turn Restigouche quit, and Rifteman, coming straight, loomed up dangerously. C. Burns rode him well and a hundred yards from the finish he overtook the tiring Spooner and beat him out for the place by half a length.

Restigouche was the favorite for the race and was well played. Spooner too had some confident backing, as did Rifteman, Lack Atkins's price went.

Nobody Hurt on the Passenger Boat, Which Stands by to Offer Aid to Men in Death Peril-Her Bow Smashed in the Collision.

PORTSM UTH, April 25 -The American liner St. Paul and the British cruiser Gladiator were in collision off the Isle of Wight this afternoon. As a result the Gladiator had to be beached and she is now aground off Yarmouth.

At least twenty lives were lost, all of the victims being members of the crew of the cruiser. Several others aboard the warship were injured.

All the pissengers and crew of the St. Paul are safe. CRASHED IN A BLIZZARD.

The collision occurred off the Needles in a snowstorm. The Gladiator belongs to the Home fleet and was on her way from Portland to Portsmouth. She has been beached a quarter of a mile from the shore and lies on her starboard side on a rising tide. The St. Paul, outward bound, had left Southampton at noon. There were only a score of saloon passengers on board. The list does not contain the name of anybody especially prominent. The casualties to the crew of the Gladiator occurred during the operation of taking to the boats. The operation was made particularly hazardous by the blizzard. The St. Paul, with a damaged bow, stood by the Gladiator for some time, rendering aid to the cruiser's crew. The cruiser Gladiator has a displacement of 5.750 tons and a complement of 450 men. She is one of the class of vessels designed to serve as rams. She is 320 feet long and has a speed of twenty knots.
